CR JEFFERSON STUDENT PLACES SECOND IN NEIBA SCHOLARSHIP COMPETITION

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – Adam Houk, Cedar Rapids Jefferson High School senior, placed second in the Northeast Iowa Bandmasters Association Roy Schwab Scholarship Competition. The competition was held on Wednesday, February 15 at Monticello High School. Adam is a trumpet player in the Jefferson Wind Symphony, Band of Blue Marching Band, Jazz Band, and Show Choir Bands.

Participation in the competition is specific to high school seniors in northeast Iowa that plan to attend an Iowa college or university in the fall and pursue music education and a career as a band director. The competition included the performance of a solo, a music theory test, an interview, and sight-reading.

Adam is the son of Andy and Arlene Houk.
