CR JEFFERSON STUDENTS PERFORM IN 2012 UNIVERSITY OF IOWA HONOR BAND

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE - Eight Cedar Rapids Jefferson Band students participated in the University of Iowa Honor Band on Saturday, February 18th in Iowa City, Iowa. Jefferson students participating in the Iowa Honor Band were Emma Edelen, trumpet; David Frey, oboe; Trey Hill, baritone saxophone; Adam Houk, trumpet; Aaron Jencks, flute; Catherine Orr, clarinet; Nate Weger, trombone; and Jacki Willenborg, flute.

The Honor Band experience offered many opportunities to the students while on campus. The Jefferson students participated in full ensemble rehearsals, master classes with University of Iowa faculty members and sectional rehearsals with graduate assistants, attended a concert by the Iowa Faculty Brass Quintet, and shared a concert in the Iowa Memorial Union with the Iowa Symphony Band under the direction of Dr. Richard Mark Heidel.

The guest conductor for the Iowa Honor Band was Dr. Myron Welch, retired Director of Band of the University of Iowa.
